

RESELLERS POLICY FOR SEPARATION DAY

Arts and Craft Show

We define a Reseller as one who buys items from a wholesaler or suppliers and without modifying or adding to the item in any way, offers this item for sale to the public, as purchased, and represents the item as having been personally created.

The Separation Day Committee, sponsor of the Separation Day Arts and Craft Show, make every attempt of not accepting Resellers for these shows, but unknowingly and unfortunately a booth will appear at times that later is identified as a Reseller. When this happens we will make note of the name of the crafter or artist for future shows and have them removed from our mailing lists.

If you observe at our show blatant Reselling, please identify those booths to any of our committee members and you have our assurance that we will follow through.

We ask those of you who are Resellers to choose other shows that accept and welcome reselling as a part of their show. We will make every effort to enforce this rule. If we find, and can confirm, a reseller at our show we CAN and WILL ask the individual to remove themselves and their booth from the show at once. NO REFUNDS WILL BE MADE!

We hope that with this policy, we can have a show where ALL items offered for sale will be truly designed by the artist or crafter.

If you have any questions with regard to the above information please call us at (302) 545-1650 before you register for our show.
